

96 Pts.

2017 The Commander, Reserve
Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley

Review: A wine driven by layered fruit deep and decadent, aromas of menthol and sandalwood, as well as mocha. The wine coats the palate with, red plum, dark berries, and cassis. Full-bodied and well-structured with ripe tannins which drives the long finish of this complex wine.

SRP: $48.00

96 Pts.

2017 The Commander, Reserve
Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley

Review: A wine driven by layered fruit deep and decadent, aromas of menthol and sandalwood, as well as mocha. The wine coats the palate with, red plum, dark berries, and cassis. Full-bodied and well-structured with ripe tannins which drives the long finish of this complex wine.

SRP: $48.00

96 Pts.

2017 The Commander, Reserve
Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley

Review: A wine driven by layered fruit deep and decadent, aromas of menthol and sandalwood, as well as mocha. The wine coats the palate with, red plum, dark berries, and cassis. Full-bodied and well-structured with ripe tannins which drives the long finish of this complex wine.

SRP: $48.00

96 Pts.

2017 The Commander, Reserve
Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley

Review: A wine driven by layered fruit deep and decadent, aromas of menthol and sandalwood, as well as mocha. The wine coats the palate with, red plum, dark berries, and cassis. Full-bodied and well-structured with ripe tannins which drives the long finish of this complex wine.

SRP: $48.00